

This is the quote You are your best thing- Toni Morrison I chose this quote because most of the time people don't get credit for the good things and get scolded for the bad things and because even if you think no one cares about you people are not there for you, kindness quotes are for spreading kindness. You can spread kindness through helping people in need or just listening to your classmates.