

The quote I chose is:

Kindness is a gift everyone can afford to give

- Unknown

I chose this quote because it's very meaningful.

This quote means that giving someone a gift costs money and some people can't afford that.

But kindness is a gift that doesn't cost any money

So that everyone can afford to give.

It's important to spread kindness because everyone wants to be treated with kindness and respect.