Flower Offerings

"Flowers always make people feel better, happier, and more helpful; They are sunshine, food and medicine for the soul." - Luther Burbank

Why not bring joy and happiness to those around you by offering handmade flowers?

Enjoy creating your own flowers by clicking below:

Paper Pansies Paper Rose Tissue Bouquet Bread Rose

Treasures from Nature

Giving artwork to someone special is a wonderful way to show that you care! Go on a walk in the park, in the lane, or in your backyard to find flowers, twigs, leaves, and other treasures. Use these items to bring your art to life!

Follow the links below to discover how to carry out this art activity while targeting language and social communication skills!

Level 1 Activity

Level 2 Activity

The Art of Giving

This week, the activities were inspired by the spirit of giving. Here are other ways you can give back to our community:

- Write a letter to an elderly person. Read about the initiative here.

Click here for email contact.

Click here for more ideas on how to help during the COVID-19 outbreak.

Make it for the Birds

Spring is in the air and so are the birds. This week take some time to look after the birds by building a birdfeeder and birdhouse. These handson activities are a fun and engaging way to learn from real experiences while interacting with nature. Enjoy these beautiful spring days watching the birds enjoying what you have built for them.

> Level 1 Bird Feeders Bird Houses

Level 2 Bird Feeders

Bird House

Greeting Card

Writing a card for someone is a great way to tell them how much you appreciate them! It also works on many fine motor and organizational skills. Discuss with your child who they will be making the card(s) out to and why: it can be a friend, sibling, teacher or even an essential worker! Then, complete the fun card crafts below, write a message and send them out!

Level 1 Activity Click here for writing tips

Level 2 Activity

Click here for writing tips