

Instrumental Music Grade 10-11

Required Materials

Instrument: provided by FACE (as per authorization letter)
Folder for band parts and fingering chart
Pencil and eraser
Depending on instrument: oil, grease, reeds, cleaner, etc., to be purchased by student

Program Content

✓ Key Features of Competency Performs musical works

- Becomes familiar with the musical content of the work (musical language, structure and the graphic representation : pitch, duration, intensity, form)
- Applies elements of instrumental technique (care and maintenance of instrument, posture, holding position, breathing, tone production, intonation, tonguing, fingering)
- Becomes familiar with the expressive nature of the piece of music (tempo, style, dynamics, phrasing and tonguing)
- Respects the conventions regarding group ensemble work (follows the leader's indications and listens to others)
- Shares his/her musical performance experience

✓ Key Features of Competency Creates musical works

- Uses ideas to create a musical work
- Uses sound sources (instrument), elements of musical language and elements of technique
- Organizes his/her musical creation
- Shares his/her creative musical experience

✓ Key Features of Competency Appreciates musical works

- Analyzes a work or production
- Interprets the meaning of the work or production
- Makes a critical and aesthetic judgment
- Shares his/her appreciation experience

Evaluation

Competencies to perform and to create: 70%

Competency to appreciate: 30%

Competency to perform: terms 1, 2 and 3

Competency to create: terms 2 and 3

Competency to appreciate: terms 2 and 3

The report card mark is based on the following criteria :

- a) Observation in classe.
- b) Instrumental exams; students must be ready to be evaluated at any time on material learned in class.
- c) Work in appreciation, creation.
- d) Concert participation: Friday December 5th at 7:00 pm and Thursday May 14^h at 7:00 pm.

Emails

Marie-Eve Arseneau : marseneau@emsb.qc.ca

Catherine Bouchard : bouchardcat@csgm.qc.ca

Emmanuelle Racine-Gariépy: racineg.e@csgm.qc.ca