Comments about MEQ Evaluations:

This course has a Ministry Exam in June. The Ministry Exam will count for % of the entire year.

Communication to Students and Parents:

Communication will be carried out through email and through Google Classroom.
All students are expected to join the Google Classroom, all homework, updates, due dates and evaluation dates will be posted there. The class code is fyuyqb3.
Direct communication with parents and students will be done via email.
My email is jfoisy@emsb.qc.ca
My room number is 315

Materials/Routines/Other:

Students are expected to come to class with a pencil, a notebook or paper, at least one highlighter and pen, a scientific calculator, their Observatory workbook, and the previous lesson's homework, completed.

Cell phones are not allowed in the classroom. If a student is using their cell phone, I will take it and hand it over to a principal to be picked up at the end of the day, per the school's cellphone policy.

*All homework will be due the following class, unless I state otherwise.
Students will almost always have the opportunity to start or even complete homework during class time.*

There is no midterm or final exam for this course

Remediation will be offered at lunch in room 315, days TBD (they will be promptly posted on Google Classroom once they have been scheduled)
