8. Reports

8.1. Principal

Ms Zervas thanked the governing board members for their service this year.

8.2. Teachers

- Concert tomorrow
- The students and staff are looking forward to a restful and memorable summer.

8.3. Chairperson

- Thanked the governing board and wished Ms. Fundaro well in her new role as Interim Principal at MacKay Centre and Philip E. Layton.

8.4. Treasurer

Thanked the governing board for their time and service.

8.5. Parents Committee Report (Delegate)

Nothing to report – there was a meeting this evening. Ashley will send information

8.6. Home and School Liaison

Ice cream truck and games for students on June 19.

Large board games were purchased for the school's use during rain days.

Online school supply fundraiser will go online on June 14 and will run until school starts. A communication will be sent.

Used uniform sale took place on the same day as the Welcome to Kindergarten event. If their are families who can't come to the sale, GHSA would like to help those parents by putting items aside for them.

8.7. BASE report

Monday, June 1 professional day was very fun for the children. Students got their faces painted and were outdoors all day.

8.8. Commissioner

Bill 8, An Act to regulate the language of instruction in vocational training and in adult general education was passed today. This means new students will not be able to register in the english Voc-Ed programs. Fewer registrations means less funding toward special education.

Calling on parents to get involved in school life and encourage them to ensure they are registered to the English Board
