COURSE STANDARDS AND PROCEDURES 2025-2026

COURSE:

Geography (Year 1)

CLASS RESOURCES: Course Content Workbook : Geo World (v.f. Géo à la carte) by Les Éditions CEC

COURSE DESCRIPTION : In Secondary Cycle One, students study how human beings use, occupy and take possession of space and transform it into a territory. Different types of territories in Québec, Canada and other parts of the world have been selected for study: urban territory (metropolises, cities subject to natural hazards and heritage cities), regional territory (tourist regions, forest regions, energy-producing regions and industrial regions), agricultural territory (agricultural territory in a national space and agricultural territory subject to natural hazards), Native territory and protected territory. Students learn to understand the organization of these territories and interpret issues associated with them.

MYP AIMS ADDRESSED BY THE COURSE:

MYP Course Aims	MEES Course Objectives
-Appreciate human and environmental commonalities and diversity. -Understand the interaction and interdependence of individuals, societies, and the environment. -Understand how both environmental and human systems operate and evolve. -Identify and develop concern for the well-being of human communities and the natural environment.	The overall aim of this course will be to understand the organization of various territories, explore the issues that accompany it, and discuss how these issues affect the global community and one's place in it.

FUNDAMENTAL IB CONCEPTS: Change; Relationships; Global Interactions; Time, place and space; Systems (Related concepts: Patterns & Trends, Scale, Management & Intervention, Globalization, Sustainability, Disparity & Equity, Processes, Power, Causality)

KEY INSTRUCTIONAL STRATEGIES/APPROACHES TO LEARNING: Content will be delivered using the workbooks (projected on SmartBoard as well), but will also be shared digitally: through Google Classroom (assignments, slides, and notes). Students will develop communication skills, through written and oral expression of viewpoints; critical thinking skills, during class discussions, reflection assignments, and debates; and social skills, in interactions with classmates and teachers.
