

WILLIAM A. J. BENNET

P/O WILLIAM A. BENNET
ACCIDENTLY KILLED; CAPE BRETON IS.
AUG. 7 1944

William A.J. Bennet attended and graduated Westmount high school. He was an only child and by the time he was half way through high school, his father passed away. Despite losing his father he continued on not only to graduate high school but Air cadets as well. William formally joined the Royal Canadian Air Force in 1942. Tragically, William never saw combat due to a fatal training exercise that took his life. He died at the age of 21. He was buried in Mount Royal cemetery with his father.

"The world owes a handsome guy a living."
WILLIAM BENNET "Flash" "Bill"
Fav. Exp.—"Where's the place? What page? I know, but why?"
Pet Avers.—School between holidays.
Pastime—Yawning.
Ambition—To install a bed in 11 B.C.
Activities—Life Saving '38, '39.

