

A Closer Look at 340B in Your Community

The 340B Drug Pricing Program was designed to help vulnerable patients access medications they might not be able to afford. To achieve this, manufacturers provide tens of billions of dollars each year in steep discounts on outpatient medicines to safety-net clinics and qualifying hospitals. The expectation is that those entities would use those savings to ensure vulnerable patients' access to medicines.

But the 340B program is broken. Today, it has become less about patients and more about boosting the bottom lines of hospitals and for-profit pharmacies, which are mostly owned by middlemen, known as pharmacy benefit managers (PBMs).

Here's what the program looks like across the country and in North Carolina.

Fast Facts: 340B Nationwide

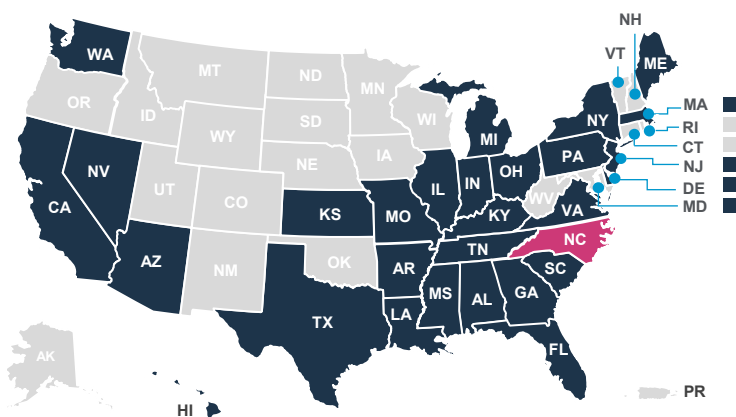

- 57% of all hospitals in the United States participate in the 340B program.
- Discounted 340B purchases reached nearly $54 billion in 2022 nationwide – 23% higher than in 2021.
- The number of contract pharmacies has grown nationwide by more than 8,000% since 2010.
- 46% of contract pharmacy arrangements are with pharmacies associated with one of the three largest PBMs.

Fast Facts: 340B in North Carolina

- 52 hospitals in North Carolina are part of the 340B program.

Locations of 340B Contract Pharmacies – and Middleman Involvement – in North Carolina, 2022

Did you know that North Carolina 340B hospitals have nearly 750 contracts with pharmacies outside the state? Because of vertical integration in the supply chain, for-profit middlemen like PBMs and chain pharmacies also now make a profit from this safety-net program.

Are our nation's 340B hospitals providing adequate charitable care?

- Charitable care is the free or reduced-cost care provided to qualifying patients.
- Unfortunately, 77% of nonprofit hospitals nationwide spent less on charity care than they gained from tax breaks.
- The top performing 340B hospitals nationwide collected nearly $10 in total profit for every $1 they invested in charity care in 2021.
- In total, hospitals in North Carolina make 1.7 times as much from 340B as they spend on charity care.
